

Event Volunteer at Evoke Festival in Brentwood

About Teenage Cancer Trust:

We make sure young people don't face cancer alone. We do it by providing world-class cancer care and support in specialist units, local hospitals and in homes across the UK. We're there at every stage, from diagnosis through treatment and after treatment too, but for every young person we can reach, there's another we can't.

At a glance:

We're looking for volunteers to support this fantastic local music festival, so we'll need volunteers to help bucket collect, sell merchandise and raffle tickets. We need a few volunteers with big smiles and enthusiasm to help us out for a few hours, and in return you are welcome to stay and enjoy the festival thereafter.

Please feel free to have a look at Evoke's website for more details; <https://evokefestival.com/>
