

Volunteer Fundraising Group Member

About Teenage Cancer Trust:

Teenage Cancer Trust is the only UK charity dedicated to improving the quality of life and chances of survival for the seven young people aged between 13 and 24 diagnosed with cancer every day. We want every young person with cancer to have access to our specialist support, no matter where they live. We're dedicated to making it happen, but we need your support to do it.

At a glance:

We are looking for some enthusiastic and committed volunteers to join our Fundraising Group based in Liverpool. This is a great opportunity for someone looking to join a committed team of supporters with the aim of raising vital funds and awareness of Teenage Cancer Trust in the local community.

Time Commitment: Approximately, one monthly meeting, and a few hours per month as a regular commitment to ensure the success of the group. We would ideally like a volunteer to commit to about 6 months in post.

Location: Liverpool

Responsible to: Emma Cross

How to apply: Email emma.cross@teenagecancertrust.org or call 07943 817372 to have a chat about the role

What will I do?

- Actively participate in monthly meetings in a venue agreed by the group
- Be an active member the group; develop ideas for events, be solution-focused and think of new fundraising ideas as a team
- Act as a representative of Teenage Cancer Trust at selected events and attend events such as cheque presentations on behalf of the charity
- Jointly aim to reach fundraising targets that the fundraising group will set and always keep other members informed of actions and progress
- Put together some promotional material and press releases and actively encourage new volunteers to join the group!

What will I gain?

- You'll have fun; the meetings are stimulating and social...and they always involve tea and cake!
- You'll gain confidence in networking and speaking to corporate and individual donors
- You'll be actively enhancing your CV
- You'll raise vital funds and awareness for an amazing charity

What skills do I need?

- Enthusiasm for the work of Teenage Cancer Trust and a positive attitude
- You'll need to be someone who's able to work individually as well as within a team
- You'll need to be confident in communicating with people over the phone and in person
- You'll need to be organised, able to prioritise, and work independently to deadlines
