Siobhan Dunn, Chief Executive, Teenage Cancer Trust, UK

IT IS OUR GREAT PLEASURE TO INVITE YOU TO ATTEND A HISTORIC AND MOMENTOUS CONGRESS FOR HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS HOSTED BY TEENAGE CANCER TRUST

From 5 to 7 December, in the beautiful city of Edinburgh, Teenage Cancer Trust will be hosting the very first Adolescent and Young Adult Global Cancer Congress.

The Global Congress will build on the success of the previous eight Teenage Cancer Trust International Conferences and the strong international relationships that have developed through worldwide advances in AYA cancer treatment and services.

The development - to create the first truly global event in AYA cancer - is in recognition that awareness and concern regarding the problem and the uniqueness of cancer in adolescents and young adults is becoming more and more universal.

The first of this series will be hosted by Teenage Cancer Trust on behalf of the new Global Accord which has been set up as a collaboration between three charitable organisations - Teenage Cancer Trust, Teen Cancer America and CanTeen Australia - for the purpose of creating a truly global approach to this conference series. Each year the Congress will rotate geographically, starting with the UK in December 2016.

We have been busy making excellent preparations for a top quality educational and networking forum. Our programme is truly international - with experts from all corners of the globe coming to share their expertise and knowledge with us. Our speakers have been nominated by our International Advisors, so we know that we can look forward to stimulating presentations. There will also be the opportunity for delegates to present their work by way of the Call for Abstracts. We can also look forward to enjoying the colours, sounds and flavours of Scottish hospitality by way of our social programme. You will find more information about all these aspects in this Announcement.

Our aim is that all participants leave this important Congress having learnt from our experts and each other, with renewed energy and motivation so that they return to their workplaces to drive forward quality improvements in practice and care of young people with cancer.

Working Together - Achieving More.

Do come and join us for this landmark event.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS AND GLOBAL EXCHANGE DISPLAYS

The accepted submitted abstracts will be an important part of the educational material available at this Global Congress. We have lots of room for posters and have also set aside oral presentation sessions within the programme.

We also wish to encourage new presenters and delegates to share their work informally in the Global Exchange which will be a zone within our Exhibition and catering area.

We have put together a Call for Abstracts and Global Exchange Displays and this is available at: www.teenagecancertrust.org/conference All presenters must register to attend.

If you have some material that you think would be of interest to your global colleagues, do submit it to this historic global event – it is a special opportunity.

REGISTRATION

All Registrations must be made on-line, via our secure system. You will find a link to the system at www.teenagecancertrust.org/conference

The system accepts payment by credit card (card company charges apply), cheque or bank transfer.

Our system enables you to book yourself onto the Conference and produce your own invoice, to refer to your employer or to claim your expenses. HOWEVER please note that ALL INVOICES – WITH NO EXCEPTIONS – are payable ahead of the Conference and it remains the responsibility of the participant to ensure payment. The Secretariat cannot enter into contact with any participant's finance team. All delegates must ensure that the Secretariat has received payment ahead of the event.

Full Registration includes participation in all Conference sessions for the 3 days of the programme, poster viewing, access to the Exhibition, one copy of the Conference Programme and Abstract Book, your lunches, teas and coffees on each day of the Conference and an invitation to the Whisky Tasting Reception (pre-booking required) at the end of Day 1.

SOCIAL PROGRAMME

Welcome Reception with Scottish Flavour

5 December at 5pm at The Assembly Rooms, Edinburgh

Recognising the importance to delegates of networking opportunities, we will hold a Welcome Reception in the Assembly Rooms to follow on from the day's programme on 5 December.

All delegates are welcome and attendance is free of charge but delegates must pre-book to attend.

This will be an opportunity to network with colleagues and sample some Scottish delights in the beautiful surroundings of the Ballroom. Drinks and nibbles will be provided.

Come and enjoy this informal reception.

Dress code: Informal

Gala Dinner

6 December at 7.30pm at Mansfield Traquair, Edinburgh
Tickets £60

We are planning a unique Gala Dinner to mark the special occasion of this historic 1st Global AYA Cancer Congress and extend the networking opportunities at this event.

This will be a celebratory evening in a magnificent building. After a pre-Dinner drinks reception, a three course dinner will be served, with Scottish music to enjoy.

Ticket price is £60 and must be pre-booked and paid for.

Dress code: Cocktail Dress

ACCOMMODATION

For convenience of booking at the same time as registering, the Organisers have made block bookings with a range of hotels as local to The Assembly Rooms Edinburgh as possible, including our Conference Hotel, The George Hotel. Special Conference deals are in place for a limited time. Refer to the Hotel Listing for prices and codes to make your booking.

Conference block bookings will be released a month ahead of the Conference, so late bookings will be subject to ad hoc availability: early booking is recommended.

For all hotel bookings, a credit card number must be provided. For information on how to book, refer to the Hotel Listing.

JOINING INSTRUCTIONS

A final briefing will be E-Mailed to all registered participants around 14 days before the Conference. We recommend that ALL participants obtain the latest programme and joining instruction information from the website before travelling to the event.

The hosts reserve the right to alter any part of the Conference programme in the event of unforeseen circumstances.

INSURANCE

Neither Teenage Cancer Trust, the Conference venue, nor the Organisers can accept responsibility for any loss or injury relating to participants. All participants are encouraged to obtain their own travel insurance policy for their trip, to include the unfortunate need to cancel Registration.
