

PHOTOGRAPHER ROYAL PARKS HALF MARATHON Sunday 10 October 2021

Could you help to capture the amazing atmosphere of the Royal Parks Half Marathon and create keepsakes for our team of runners? Bring your photography skills to race day to snap our fundraisers and volunteers in image form. Join us at our cheer point to get the best reaction from our participants and help us to make sure the experience is one they will never forget!

When: 3-4 hours, from 9am onwards

Where: Race route, central London - exact location tbc (Please note the cheer point could be located anywhere along the route we will update you as soon as we have an exact location)

Supported by: Claire O'Sullivan

What will I do?

- Bring your own camera equipment
- Snap and/or video Teenage Cancer Trust runners, volunteers, the crowds and race day in general, capturing the unparalleled atmosphere of the marathon
- Advise the charity on potential photography opportunities, as identified.

What will I gain?

- A first-class experience soaking up the atmosphere of the event
- One of our red volunteer t-shirts
- Reasonable travel expenses will be reimbursed
- Support on the day as needed, from a dedicated member of staff at the cheer point.

What skills do I need?

- Ideally, you'll be an experienced professional or talented amateur photographer
- The ability to build rapport with supporters and volunteers
- Creativity and initiative to take the best possible shots
- Ability to take direction where necessary from Teenage Cancer Trust staff.

To apply, new volunteers should complete our online registration form. Or if you're already registered as a Teenage Cancer Trust volunteer, simple email us. Either way, be sure to get your application in before midday on Wednesday 29 September.
