

About Teenage Cancer Trust:

Teenage Cancer Trust is the only UK charity dedicated to improving the quality of life and chances of survival for the seven young people aged between 13 and 24 diagnosed with cancer every day.

At a glance:

We are incredibly lucky to have amazing supporters doing amazing things, like running the Great Birmingham Run, to help raise money to support our work! On challenge days we want to give supporters the best possible experience, and that includes capturing the special moments from the day and that's where you come in...

Time Commitment: 3-4 hours on Sunday 24th April 2016

Location: London Marathon course, Central London

Responsible to: Kelly Williams, Volunteering Development Officer

What will I do?

- Take general and specific shots of Teenage Cancer Trust runners and the cheering team
- Work with the team to ensure that special moments of the day are captured
- Be a representative of Teenage Cancer Trust on the day

What skills do I need?

Ideally, you will be a professional or talented amateur photographer, or a photography student looking to develop their portfolio.

- The ability to build rapport with supporters and young people with cancer
- An understanding of photography and good experience of doing this type of work
- Creativity and initiative to take the best possible shots
- Ability to take direction where necessary

What will I gain?

- Support from a dedicated member of staff in your role
- Joining a friendly team in an exciting charity
- Helping Teenage Cancer Trust to reach more young people with cancer
- Unique chance to carry out an unusual but essential volunteering role for Teenage Cancer Trust

How do I apply?

To find out more and apply to this role, please email volunteers@teenagecancertrust.org, or call 020 7291 6962 for a chat. Thank you!

